Illinois Advocates for the Deafblind

Illinois Advocates for the Deafblind is a non-profit organization of parents, families, friends, and professionals dedicated to protecting the rights and advocating for the needs of all individuals with deafblindness.

Membership in IADB allows you to connect to families throughout the state of Illinois that have members with dual vision and hearing loss. IADB works to ensure that anyone with deafblindness is able to live a full and productive life. Membership entitles you to receive the IADB newsletter and attend events that provide opportunities to network with other families, educators, and service providers. IADB members gain access to our Facebook page which provides timely information on events, resources, and legislation. Persons with family membership can also apply for IADB stipends to attend meetings, workshops and conferences.
